May sponsor entire US effort?
All 3 million+ sourced volunteers

Good source of boomerang hires

Company events?
Or the entire industry?

Sponsor all university sourcing?
Or technology sourcing?

May want to sponsor all of Minnesota?

May want to be Platinum Sponsor for entire Gulf Coast?

Large markets can be further defined

- Master's Degrees
  - 28,000+ Advanced "Boot Camp" Special invite for leadership training
  - Done by dignitaries
- Industry Volunteer Events
  - 10,000+ Accounting
  - 11,000+ Banking
  - 18,000+ Education
  - 24,000+ Healthcare
  - 2,000+ Construction
- Company-Specific Alumni Events
  - 100+ PwC with volunteer experience
  - but...
  - 800+ PwC alumni
- University-based Events (Graduates)
  - 10,000+ NYU
  - 2,400+ Columbia
  - 700+ St. Johns
  - 3,000+ CUNY
  - 1,000+ NY Institute Tech
- Senior Citizens
  - 3,000+ with 30 years+ experience (volunteer)
  - but...
  - 54,000+ total!

Possibilities are endless...

Professional volunteers fast-tracked through leadership training

- Specific Organizations (e.g. AmeriCorps)
- Volunteer Organization Alumni (employees)
- Foreign language Fluency
- Locations
- Diversity

This is a huge opportunity!

Currently track 1,800 different terms that denote a volunteer of diverse background

Like corporate hiring, this could be a national campaign

Universities
Campus Organization
Professional Organization
Names
Niche diversity resume boards

Corporate sponsor for training session (gets resume access!)

Could be special group on Facebook (NY MBA Volunteers)

Great source of mentors

Playgrounds & Parks? Bring own crews?

Volunteer event sponsored by PwC
Event tailored to group's strengths
e.g. Homeless vets help with financial services

Come out and meet fellow MBAs...
Volunteerism in Manhattan by Michael Bloomberg
Super Saturday - One day and you will be ready to lead

PwC sponsors a volunteer event
Make it an "alumni event"
Can even invite local employees

Who may have never volunteered before?!

These are all graduates with volunteerism in resume (only for 365 days)

Volunteer event on campus?
Come support your alma mater

The key is to hang on to these records
Treat them as passive candidates
Know graduation date? Know ~age

The key? One size does not fit all. Both for Volunteers and Corporate Sponsors.

Many non-volunteers have difficulty taking the first step
If he/she thinks they may no someone (fellow PwC alumni)
Or have an area of interest/conversation starter (same university)
Much more likely to take the next step (and have a richer experience)

If the message can be tuned to an area of interest (and) you can reach the volunteer as a member of a larger group...

Success!

May not want to sponsor market
May instead want to sponsor opportunity area

Volunteers can be further refined by areas of interest

Examples ....

	Austin	Houston
Animals and Environment
Culture
Civic and Community	Yes
Education and Technology	Yes
Health		Yes
Human Services
Public Safety and Disaster Preparedness
Faith-based Service		Yes
Children and Youth
Hurricane Relief and Recovery		Yes
Working with Seniors	Yes

Each market can be analyzed for strengths
Volunteers can be grouped by discipline with markets

For example, 1,700+ volunteers with hurricane in resume

5,000+ more with hurricane (non volunteers that can be invited)

But the list can be rolled up nation-wide in the event of a national emergency (42,000+ US hurricane & volunteer)

Sourcing data can enhance local Action Center performance metrics

Potential size of current volunteer market
Size of entire population in transition
Clickthroughs on invitations
Conversion rate

But how do we determine areas of competency or interest?

Resume Language Sets

A dictionary of terms that describe an area of expertise

For example, does the volunteer have one or more of these terms in his/her resume?

cyclone, disaster, earthquake, flood, hurricane, ike, katrina, rita, tornado, tsunami, 9/11

And/or some of these more general disaster management terms?

cross disaster, disaster assistance, disaster management, disaster medical, disaster preparedness, disaster recovery, disaster relief, disaster response, disaster services, disaster victims, emergency department, emergency management, emergency medical, emergency response, emergency services, federal emergency, first aid, flood relief, mass care, national disaster, red cross, relief effort, relief volunteer, response team

And are you already a volunteer?

community involvement, community outreach, community relations, community service, community volunteer, fund raising, habitat for, human services, mission trips, outreach program, public affairs, public safety, salvation army, service ribbon, service volunteer, social work, the homeless, volunteer activities, volunteer coordinator, volunteer education, volunteer experience, volunteer fire, volunteer for, volunteer program, volunteer service, volunteer services, volunteer work

Levels of Corporate Sponsorship

Platinum

Sponsor the entire metropolitan area for one year
100,000 volunteers get invited to join (with your logo)
100,000+ additional candidates with no volunteer experience invited
4-5 event sponsorships per year (included in level)
No compete agreement (another accounting firm cannot sponsor)

Can manage waiting list for next year
Current platinum sponsor gets first shot at renewal
Sponsor can use POLI branding with approval
Sits on national strategic task force (only Platinums)

Sponsor a NY Cares Facebook Group?
Remember, there may be 160,000 volunteers
But there are millions of non-volunteers!

And special algorithms are used to best determine the type of non-volunteer who would join

Gold

2-3 sponsors can be gold in 100,000+ volunteer market
Or be the exclusive sponsor in smaller tier markets (e.g. Jacksonville)
Strategic role shaping local action center

Sponsorship can support local center, National Operations and/or National Technology Initiative, etc.

Like a franchise fee...
If you opt into technology platform for sourcing volunteers, percent of sponsorships support technology

Silver

Industry sponsorship (PwC wants all accounting events)
Exclusivity, but cannot sponsor where there is Platinum in market

All levels get full access to resume database

A million+ candidates

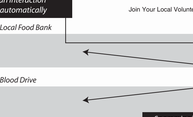
Can be tailored to company needs

Custom Language Sets for sponsors

- product lifecycle
- large systems
- QA test
- project management
- integration
- resource allocation
- program scope
- etc...

Assume Lockheed Martin is a sponsor
Maybe interested in a NGC Systems Engineer?

And ALL Volunteer Action Centers have complete access to database



Nation-wide access with full filters
Alerts when someone clicks through to Action Center site
Alerts when volunteer moves into community (Boston to Dallas)

Like corporate hiring, is there a "blue chip" volunteer pool?

Can go after masses, but also have a special program for elite volunteer leaders

And by speaking to his/her area of expertise, more likely to engage and stay engaged

Systems Engineer at Northrop Grumman

A dedicated volunteer who has run Food Banks
Worked in the area of child abuse and worked with FEMA on disaster relief

Public Service / Other Experience

Director - Food Bank: Oversight and operation of programs; grant writing; fundraising; volunteer recruitment; established training programs; counseled clients. Coordinated with various human services agencies. Volunteer position.

Board of Directors President - Child Abuse Prevention Program : Major accomplishment was successful completion of national approval for opening of shelter. Developed requirements; established committees; conducted fundraisers and television interviews to promote programs. Volunteer position.

Emergency Response - Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) - Emergency Disaster Relief Employee; Community Emergency Response Team (CERT).
